DETAILED ACTIONDrawings

1. The drawings are objected to because in Figure 3, "USUABLE" in step 54 is misspelled. Corrected drawing sheets are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: "50," "52" and "56." Corrected drawing sheets, or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description, are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:
- on page 7, line 9, "multiplexing" is misspelled;
 - on page 10, line 31, "C2 than" should be "C2, then"; and
 - on page 10, line 33, a comma should be inserted after "generated."
- Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

4. The claims are objected to because of the following informalities:
- in the claims, the numerous occurrences of "sub-carrier frequencies of the symbols" (for example, see claim 1, lines 4-5 and 8) should be "sub-carrier frequencies" for improved readability;

Art Unit: 2637

in claims 1, 11, 21, 31, 32, 34, 35, 37, 38, 40, 42, 43, 46, and 47, "communication device indicative of" should be "communication device wherein the data is indicative of" for clarification;

in claim 32, line 3, "the data" should be "the transmitted data" (see claim 31, line 7);

in claim 46, line 5, "include" should be "includes"; and in claim 47, line 9, "a second" should be "the second."

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 31, 37 and 43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Williamson et al. (US Patent No. 5,991,269). (See abstract; column 6, line 62 - column 7, line 42; and claims 1 and 15)

Art Unit: 2637

7. Claims 31, 37 and 43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Hashem et al. (US Patent No. 6,721,569 B1). (See column 4, line 26 - column 5, line 24)

8. Claims 1, 2, 7-11, 12, 17-22, and 27-48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Li et al. (US Pub. No. 2002/0119781 A1). (See the abstract; paragraphs [0007], [0024] - [0028], [0040], [0043]-[0047]; and claims 1 and 30)

9. With regard to claims 7, 8, 17, 18, 27, and 28, it is implicit that the determination of the SINR includes the evaluation of energy levels.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. Claims 3, 4, 13, 14, 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Li et al. as applied to claims 1, 11, and 21, above, and further in view of Hashem et al. Li et al. discloses the claimed invention except the data indicative of sub-carrier frequencies including a bitmap.

Hashem et al. teaches using a bitmap to indicate which sub-carriers are acceptable. (See column 4, lines 53-65) It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a bitmap in Li et al. to indicate acceptable sub-carrier frequencies in order to efficiently identify which sub-carrier frequencies are acceptable.

12. Claims 5, 6, 15, 16, 25 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Li et al. as applied to claims 1, 11, and 21, above. Li et al. discloses the claimed invention except for transmitting the data redundantly using a plurality of carriers. Since it is well-known that data is often distorted during transmission, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to transmit the data redundantly in order to increase the likelihood of the receiver recovering the transmitted data accurately.

Double Patenting

13. Applicant is advised that should claims 1, 2 and 10 be found allowable, claims 32-34 will be objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate thereof. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

14. Applicant is advised that should claims 11 and 12 be found allowable, claims 38 and 39 will be objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate thereof. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

15. Applicant is advised that should claims 21, 22, and 30 be found allowable, claims 43-45 and 47-49 will be objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate thereof. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).
